

Five million Americans, including many of my constituents, have already received cancellation notices. One constituent, Diane from Wooster, has a policy that she likes, but received notice that it would be canceled, and she is now unable to keep her doctor, whom she likes and trusts.

My vote tomorrow is for Diane and for the millions of others like her who want to keep their health care plans that the President had promised they could keep. I ask my colleagues to join me in supporting this legislation.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, for more than 3½ years, President Obama repeatedly promised Tom, who is in this picture, that if he liked his health care plan, he could keep it. Period. In spite of the President's assurances, Tom, along with 3.5 million other Americans, has recently received a cancellation letter from his insurance provider.

You see, Tom, who is a constituent from Allen, Texas, has dwarfism, which makes access to the doctors he likes, trusts, and knows critical to his well-being. Not only has ObamaCare affected his health care, but Tom has said it has taken time, energy and focus away from growing his small business. That even makes the new Pope mad. As Tom's dad often said, If you're not going to be part of the solution, at least don't be part of the problem. Thus far, ObamaCare is the problem.

It is time for President Obama to join our efforts and provide a real solution to this flawed and unworkable law.

DONNA'S DILEMMA

(Mrs. HARTZLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. HARTZLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to share a story from Missouri's Fourth District. It is from an individual who had her insurance canceled because of ObamaCare.

Donna from California, Missouri, wrote in, saying that she and her husband received a letter stating that their plan would be canceled next year because it doesn't comply with the law. After researching new plans on the exchanges, she found that their premiums for a comparable plan would increase by $300 and that their deductible would increase by $1,300. She says:

I'm not sure I'll be able to pay my medical expenses. That's a "choice" being forced upon me and is limiting my freedoms. I worry about the children whose parents don't take them to the doctor because they can't afford the out-of-pocket expense or they lose everything because they did seek medical help for a critically ill child.

Donna, we are here today to speak out for you and for the millions of Americans who were given a promise. That is why I am proud to stand with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, to ensure that our President keeps the promise he made to so many Americans. You deserve it.

THE FACES OF OBAMACARE

(Mrs. WAGNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, in recent weeks I have received countless examples of heartbreaking stories from the people of Missouri's Second Congressional District about how government-run health care is impacting their lives.

Today, I rise to put a face on the failures of ObamaCare and to tell Pam and Dennis Hopmann's story, who hail from Chesterfield, Missouri. This is their story in their own words:

We are livid that President Obama broke his promise to us about keeping our doctors. The Federal Government has very few success stories at running programs, and this is a prime example. Not only am I going to lose my insurance, but I also received a letter that I would lose care from my OB/GYN doctor, whom I have seen for 30 years. I wanted to stay with my plan. There was nothing wrong with it. It was not a "junk" plan, which Obama so frequently likes to call them.

Mr. Speaker, this is just one of millions of examples of real people being hurt by ObamaCare.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. PEARCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PEARCE. Mr. Speaker, the President promised that if you like your plan you can keep it; but he hasn't followed that promise, and he followed up with an administering of the plan that is even worse.

Only 172 people have been able to sign up in the one month's 24-hour access to the Web site that is supposed to allow us to sign up. More people are served popcorn and soft drinks during the halftime of an Artesia football game than have been able to get service through this Web site. The losses are extensive:

In Truth or Consequences, Ron says that he lost his coverage and that the replacement is 350 percent to 550 percent higher;

Jacob in Roswell: his whole road crew lost its plan. It is seeing its premiums triple;

Kathy from Silver City, who is on fixed income-retirement: their premiums are quadrupling;

Jen, on Facebook, who is going from $300 a month to $1,500 a month, wonders where she can get the money to pay that.

Maybe you have an answer, Mr. President.

ANOTHER BROKEN OBAMACARE PROMISE

(Mr. SMITH of Missouri asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SMITH of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, today President Obama announced yet another delay to his health care mandate. The President is picking and choosing which parts of ObamaCare he wants to enforce. The President needs to stop picking winners and losers. ObamaCare is broken and cannot be fixed.

Republicans led the fight against ObamaCare because we knew the mandate would cause individuals to lose their health care. We knew monthly premiums would skyrocket, and we knew the quality of the health care of Americans would suffer.

For over 3 years, President Obama has made numerous statements to American families to sell his misguided health care law, and now he is asking Americans to trust him again.

My constituents in the Show Me State are not buying it, President Obama.

Mr. Speaker, ObamaCare cannot be fixed by delaying portions of the law. ObamaCare needs to be repealed.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. NEUGEBAUER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to read to you a letter from a woman named Katherine from Levelland. Katherine's daughter, Taylor, has an aggressive form of childhood cancer, which requires treatments in Lubbock and Houston.

Katherine writes:

Along with the expense of her medical treatments, we have the expense of keeping an apartment in Houston and traveling back and forth. My husband owns a small car dealership in Levelland, and we have a private insurance policy. We have had this policy for over 4 years, and we were devastated to find out that Taylor's policy is now being canceled.

President Obama said, If you're one of the 250 million Americans who already has health insurance, you will get to keep your own health insurance.

Unfortunately, we have not been given the choice to keep Taylor's health insurance. I wanted you to know our story so that when you are in Washington you can share it with others.

I wish that Katherine and Taylor's story were unique; but, unfortunately, I receive dozens of emails from constituents who tell me about lost coverage, lower benefits, and higher premiums. They are looking for us to make it right.

I will do everything in my power to fix this so as to ensure that mothers
